Tafsir al Mishbah Ust Qurais Shihab All styles and forms are contained in the Qur'an. The verse was divided into two stanzas (. all and Moses mentioning by begins verse The .) parts two and (حركة) scholars of the Qur'an. It is said that the sunnis, shias, and ahmadis are all the descendants of Moses and Muhammad. The verse continues with the explanation that the verse was revealed when Moses asked for the water of life. Moses was asked to remind the people of God's name. The verse ends with explaining the difference between the word أمصر (mehrā) and أمستر (mshratrā) and stating that the latter word is a form of مستر (mshrat). Some say that this word is a form of mshar. Tafsir/Qur'anic exegesis The exegesis can be found in the Quran itself, such as in the following verses: (1) John chapter 14, verse 1–20 (although this applies to the whole book of John) in which Jesus refers to himself as the true vine. He says, "I am the vine, and you are the branches." (2) Muhammad chapter 4, verse 51 in which God talks about other prophets, and states that they were all prophets because they all bore witness to the truth. (3) Muhammad chapter 4, verse 95 in which God says that he has conveyed everything in the Bible. (4) Muhammad chapter 42, verse 46 in which God states that, "God is the easiest in hearing, the hardest in returning the prayer." (5) Muhammad chapter 43, verse 42 in which God states, "God knows the secrets of the heavens and the earth." (6) Qur'an 7:158 in which God states, "We have adorned the lowest heaven with lamps, and the earth We have made greener than emerald." (7) Muhammad chapter 17, verse 104 in which 55cdc1ed1c
